

Alex Award 2014

The “Alex” Award is given annually by YALSA to 10 outstanding books written for adults that have teen (ages 12 – 18) appeal. Created in 1998, The Alex Award is sponsored by the Margaret Alexander Edwards Trust. The award is named after Margaret Alexander “Alex” Edwards, who was a young adult librarian at the Enoch Pratt Library in Baltimore.

Brewster by Mark Slouka (Fiction) LEXILE: HL800

The Death of Bees by Lisa O'Donnell (Fiction) LEXILE: none

Golden Boy by Abigail Tarttelin (Fiction) LEXILE: none

Help for the Haunted by John Searles (Fiction) LEXILE: none

Lexicon by Max Barry (Fiction) LEXILE: none

The Lives of Tao by Wesley Chu (Fiction) LEXILE: none

Mother, Mother by Koren Zailckas (Fiction) LEXILE: none

Relish by Lucy Knisley (Graphic Novel) LEXILE: 970

The Sea of Tranquility by Katja Millay (Fiction) LEXILE: none

The Universe Versus Alex Woods by Gavin Extence (Fiction) LEXILE: none